DALLAS POLICE ASSOCIATION ENDORSES SARAH LAMB FOR TEXAS HOUSE
DISTRICT 114

Dallas, TX - The Sarah Lamb campaign today announced the endorsement of the Dallas Police Officer's Political Action Committee.

Michael Mata, President of the Dallas Police Association, issued the following statement:

"Sarah understands the dangerous threat our communities face when police departments are underfunded and undermined. She will be a strong advocate for law enforcement in the Texas Legislature, and fight to ensure that our law enforcement agencies have the resources they need to keep Texans safe and help reduce crime in our communities. We are proud to endorse her for House District 114."

"Dallas needs a representative that will stand for the rule of law and protect police from efforts to defund them," said Lamb. "As crime has risen nationwide, Dallas police officers have stood in the gap to keep our children and communities safe. I'm proud to have the endorsement of the Dallas Police Association, and look forward to working with them to ensure our police and first responders have the resources and respect they deserve."

About Sarah Lamb:

Sarah is a Texan by choice and fierce advocate for Dallas County. She is a member of the Board of Directors of Bryan's House of Dallas, a foundation that supports special needs children in the Dallas area, and serves on The Real Estate Council's Public Policy Committee. Sarah is the proud mother of Henry, age 6, and Poppy, age 4, and is a parishioner at St. Thomas Aquinas of Lakewood.
